Local Attorneys Publish Second Edition

Omaha law partners Susan Ann Koenig (left) and Angela Dunne (along with their Lady Justice statue named Lucy) unveiled the second edition of their book, Divorce in Nebraska, at a book signing Tuesday at the law offices of Koenig | Dunne on South 13th Street. The book, which explains the legal process for divorce, clients' rights and what they should expect, has proved to be a model for other states. Thirteen states have published their own versions of the book, based on their states' laws. The soft-cover book, published by Addicus Books in Omaha, may be purchased for $21.95 at Amazon.com or by calling 402-346-1132.
